5.2 REHABILITATION CLAIM OF MUHAMMAD SHAFIQ KHAN S/O MUHAMMAD HAYAT KHAN (SUPREME COURT CIVIL APPEAL NO. 1124/07 Dated 04-12-2015)

11149/1362/BM/'20
28-04-'20/5th

DECISION

The summary was considered by the Board in the light of the instructions of the Honorable Supreme Court with regards to Civil Appeal No 1124/07 on 04.12.2015. Under the above mentioned judgment the authority was directed to consider the claim of the applicants in terms of Section 4 of West Pakistan Land Revenue Assessment Rules, 1968. The request of the applicant was examined on following two parameters: -

- i) The applicants request for allotment of agro farms was examined. Out of 105 Kanals 16 Marlas of land acquired, 37 Kanals 17 Marlas was found cultivable and the remaining 67 Kanals 19 Marlas was non-cultivable in terms of Section 4 of West Pakistan Land Revenue Assessment Rules, 1968. Under Section 6 of Islamabad Displaced Persons Rehabilitation Policy, 1996 allotment of agro farm is only allowed against acquisition of cultivable land measuring more than 100 kanals.
- ii) As regards denotification of DC CDA's awards dated 27.01.1968 and 20.01.1991, it was observed that 443 acres, 5 kanals and 8 Marlas of land was acquired under award dated 27.01.1968, while 712 acres and 4 kanals of land was acquired under the award of 20.01.1991. The applicants total land acquired under the above mentioned awards was 105 Kanals and 16 Marlas. The Board observed that denotification of the awards, therefore, may not be possible on following grounds: -
 - a. DC CDA's award is a judicial order announced under Section 25 of the CDA Ordinance 1960. There is no provision for denotification of the award under the Ordinance.
 - b. Secondly the applicants land was only a small part of the two awards. Denotifying the awards may have legal complications in this regard.

After careful deliberations, the Board did not find any merit in the request of the applicant in terms of CDA Ordinance 1960 and relevant regulations thereof. As there is no provision for de-notification of land under CDA Ordinance, the applicant may however prefer to approach any legal fora for claiming any legal remedy in this regard.
